The "Colonist" on the Ministry.

We were not at all surprised that our morning contemporary should place itself in an attitude of unreasonable hostility to the new Administration, before it has even a remote conception of what the policy of the Government will be. "Honesty," says our contemporary, "is the best policy," and yet in the same breath it takes the dishonest course of condemning the new Government without a trial and before it has had an opportunity to enunciate a single principle. It would appear that the unpardonable mistake committed by Mr. DeCosmo in the formation of a new Ministry was in omitting to include therein a certain gentleman whose aspirations led him to expect that in the formation of a new Cabinet his claims to a seat in the Executive Council would not be overlooked. Under the Constitution Act the number of Executive Councillors is limited to five, and however willing Mr. DeCosmo might be to provide places for his political friends in the Cabinet, unless the law in that respect were altered, he could not exceed the number allowed by the statute. The best answer to the allegation that Mr. DeCosmo has deserted his friends and taken into his confidence gentlemen to whom he was politically opposed, is that in the choice of his colleagues he did not act upon his own individual responsibility, but consulted with nearly the entire body of the members of the House, convened expressly for that purpose, and had not only the promise of their support but their approval to associate with him in the work of administering the affairs of the country. If that was an act of "treachery and desertion on the part of Mr. DeCosmo," then we have yet to learn what it is to deal frankly and above-board with public men in the conduct of public affairs. The one object that Mr. DeCosmo had in view above all others was to organize a Government in whom the public would have confidence and that would command the support of the Legislature. What I wanted is a stable Government, composed of capable men, liberal in their views, and sound in their political principles. That the new Government is composed of such men, we think we clearly showed in our issue of yesterday. That the country will endorse the selection made, we think there can be no manner of doubt, Meantime, no man has ever been the present Premier's motto, and upon this principle he and those associated with him are prepared to stand or fall, and all they ask is a fair field and no favor. A point is sought to be made against Mr. DeCosmo on the ground that "out of the three portfolios, two were given to the defeated party, and one to the victorious party." But surely when Mr. DeCosmo sought the advice, and obtained at a meeting the consent of a large majority of the House, including supporters of the out-going Ministry, in the construction of his Cabinet, it is neither fair nor just to hold him guilty on that account, or to attribute to him a want of good faith toward his political friends for having acted in accordance with the advice they gave him. The two gentlemen referred to, although belonging to the "defeated party," are well known to hold the most liberal political views—views in harmony with the rest of their colleagues, and that the defeat they sustained was not on the ground of objection to the policy of the late Government, so much as a want of confidence in the persons of the Cabinet taken as a whole. Mr. Walken was the universal choice of all parties, therefore, in taking these two gentlemen into the new Government there has been no departure from any political principle, while strength and stability has thereby been given to the Administration. It was to be expected that in organizing a new Government composed of five individuals, and making choice of those five from several who aspired to the position, disappointment would be the result; but as the law stands, that could not be avoided. We believe, however, that it is the intention to have the Constitution Act so amended as to provide at least two more seats for members in the Executive Council, and when that is done, we doubt not both the central constituents of the mainland, as well as those on this Island, will be therein represented. The object of the present Government will be to conduct the affairs of the country in accordance with the well understood wishes of the people, to develop its resources, and to lay a solid foundation for future prosperity. In this we are sure it will receive the hearty co-operation of all classes of the community; and in the pursuit of such a policy, neither the misrepresentations of the Colonies, nor the sneaking slanders of disappointed seekers after office shall cause them to swerve from the strict line of duty.

Special Meeting of the City Council.

At a special meeting of the City Council, held on Monday evening, his Worship the Mayor presiding, the following presents were ordered to be sent to the residence building named:

To the jail—one round of beef, half a sheep, 1 box salting, 1 lbs. of bacon—1 lbs. of oranges—1 lbs. of apples.

To the Royal Hospital—One round of beef, 1 quarter of mutton, 2 gallons of beer, 1 box of raisins, currants, &c.

To the Asylum—one turkey, 6 chickens, and one quarter of mutton.

We are glad to see the City Council take this step, which we have no doubt will be approved by our fellow citizens which are by various circumstances excluded from the outer world and its enjoyments.

NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Secretary of the interior has modified his instructions to the commission to examine the Northern Pacific Railroad, so that they may make their report without further delay for maps and specifications, which will hereafter be filed with the Commissioners Board, of Cincinnati and Underwood, of Lafayette, Indiana, have been telegraphed, and the commission will meet in New York in a day or two and prepare their report at once, which will entitle the company to a portion of its land grant. The company will probably seek legislation next session for a change in the location of the western portion of their line, but not, as has been stated, ask for a subsidy to aid in the construction of the road.

A TALENTMAN from Dublin on the 15th ult says:—"A serious fracas took place yesterday between two gentlemen. While the County Wexford Hunt were riding along the public road near Ballymore, an altercation took place between two members—Mr. Sweetman, formerly a magistrate, and Captain Quin. Mr. Sweetman made a motion as if to raise his whip to strike Captain Quin, but was anticipated by the latter striking him with his. Sweetman then drew a six-barrelled revolver and fired four times at Captain Quin, but without effect. Sweetman was arrested shortly afterwards by the constabulary, and is still in custody, bail having been refused.

BRANDIES.—The first direct shipment from France of the celebrated Champagne Vineyard Proprietors' brandy, for Turner, Beeton & Tunstall, arrived at San Francisco this week by ship Resolute from Bordeaux, and is expected up on the Prince Alfred. This shipment comprises amongst other dates of vintage some more of the celebrated 1831 and 1855, the former now over forty years old. These brandies are acknowledged by the best judges to be the very purest and best imported, and they command the highest prices in the Markets of London and San Francisco.

SCROOGE.—The examination of the Sooke School, which is under the charge of Mrs. Miles, was held on Friday the 20th Dec. There were present Mr. Michael Muir and Mr. Welch Trustees, Mr. Merson, J. P., and the parents of the children. The examination was very satisfactory to all present, showing that teacher and children were attending to their duties since the school was opened a month or two since.

MAGNIFIC.—An attempt is being made to make arrangements for a Masonic Banquet, to be held on the evening of the 27th inst.; but it is feared that from want of participants the affair will fail through want of numbers. It is strange that out of the large number of Masons in Victoria, a sufficient number cannot be induced to take part in such a banquet as this, to ensure its entire success.

TAX POSTMASTER.—As there is considerable discussion going on at present about the creating of new portfolios, the undersigned is prepared to make them in any quantity. Also, Blank Books and every description of Binding and Ruling done. R. T. WILLIAMS, at No. 10, T. N. Hobson & Co's.

IT HAS BEEN judicially decided that peers in England have no right to vote at elections for members of Parliament; but it must not be supposed that this ruling applies to the Members of the Senate of Canada, who, in general, have larger powers than peers in England.

THE CAUCASIAN SERVICES TO-DAY.—The Bishop of Columbia will preach at St. John's this morning. The Dean will preach at the Cathedral, and Rev. Mr. Griswold at St. Paul's, Esquimalt. At the Wesley Church, Pandora street, Rev. Mr. Derrick will officiate.

CHRISTMAS AND NEW YEAR'S PRESENTS.—A fine assortment of Watches and Jewellery for sale at "C. Bedfords", Government street. Also, a small lot of fine French Bronze Figures, and Porcelains, being the first articles of the kind imported into this Province.

ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL.—There was a large attendance last evening to witness the usual Midnight service. The choir gave St. Peter's High Mass. The customary religious services for Christmas Day will be held to-day.

PANDORA STREET CHURCH.—Negotiations recently conducted to procure for church purposes, the vacant church in Pandora street, failed. We understand the property is not at the present time in the market.

THE STRANGER.—The Prince Alfred having left on the 21st, a day behind the schedule time, as announced in yesterday's paper, will be due to-morrow morning, 4 days from to-day. She has but twenty-five passengers.

THE DISASTER BANK.—The Almatia has two anchors out, with considerably over 100 fathoms each. The Fly has been chartered to go to her relief and will, weather permitting, arrive in this port to-morrow.

FOR THE STEAMER.—The steamer North Pacific left here yesterday at 10:30 a. m., for the Sound and way ports. A small amount of freight and a few passengers were on board.

PANAMA papers of the 26th ult. states that the new steamer Taaco, from Liverpool, in a total loss near Montevideo. Loss $750,000.

A DISPATCH this morning from Cork informs us that Mr. Bonny, a nationalist, has been elected to Parliament for that city.

MR. SAMUEL COLE made $200,000 profit out of revolver last year. She has a lovely daughter who will inherit $8,000,000.

HOLIDAY.—To-day being Xmas Day the usual holiday will be observed, and no paper will be issued from this office to-morrow.

The Island Survey.

Marcus Smith, Esq., Chief Engineer of the Canadian Pacific Railway Survey in British Columbia, and Mr. John McLeish returned from the east coast per the steamer Nanaimo last night. They are most favorably impressed with the facilities of the coast for the railroad, and would have carried out their intention of walking down to the city via Nanaimo had not the severity of the late snow storm rendered it next to impossible. Mr. Smith has examined the whole of the coast from the northern Narrows down to Cowichan, and he apprehends no difficulties with regard to construction, &c. The mode of travelling was varied by use of a sledge where the coast was too high to be crossed without obstacles as to render the labor of walking over it superfluous. Very rough weather was experienced on Sunday and Monday; a half of snow was in and around camp. Mr. Smith intends to prosecute his explorations further in the course of a few days and immediately the weather clears up will drive out to the head of the Saanich Inlet, between Sir Sidney and his family were at dinner, and jewelry worth £300 were lost.

Mr. Archibald, of the Home Circuit, succeeds Sir James Hansen in the Court of Queen's Bench.

The deaths are announced of Mr. J. George Nicol, M. P., for Kincardineshire, and of Sir G. S. Abercromby, Banchory.

Sir Bartle Frere's East African slave trade suppression mission has caused much excitement at Bombay, which is the headquarters of the accused traffic.

Mr. George Odger is suing the proprietor and printer of a London weekly for libel in declaring that "he threatened unprecedented demonstrations and great discord."

The Lord Mayor's residence at Highgate was entered by burglers on Monday evening while Sir Sidney and his family were at dinner, and jewelry worth £300 were lost.

SAVING-PORT GARRY

on the 10th August, accompanied by his son, a youth of 16 years of age, he proceeded to Fort Edmonton, on the North Saskatchewan River, Fort Ellice, Carlton, Pitt, and Victoria, a distance of nearly 1,000 miles, which he accomplished in 21 days of actual travel. He and his son, accompanied by 10 horses and two Red River carts with the traps, started with him to Fort Edmonton, he proceeded onward with the new guide to the Rocky Mountain House, distant about 180 miles from Fort Edmonton, which he reached in four days from that place. The "Rocky Mountain House" is well known to the country by his Indian name of "Piskau," a Scotch half-breed, and one of the most famous guides and bushrangers in the service of the Hudson Bay Company.
